Yes, Virginia

There is a Santa Claus

An Editorial from the New York Sun, September 21, 1897
by Francis P. Church

We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the com-
same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of The Sun.

Dear Editor:

I am 8 years old.
Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says "If you see it in the Sun"
it's so." Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?

Virginia O'Hanlon
115 West 95th Street
New York City

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds.
All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus.
He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy.
Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no
Virgins.

There would be no
childlike faith, then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in the sense and sight. The eternal light with which our childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies.
You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but there's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural beauty and glory beyond.
Is it real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Throughout this special section, you will find letters written by children in the second and third grades of area schools. Like Virginia, they may sometimes be skeptical of the existence of Santa Claus, but the childlike faith one sometimes needs in the world of today is very much in evidence through these letters.

Do we really need Santa Claus in today's world of science and technology? Is it possible for us to do without him? Maybe so, but like Mr. Church said in 1897, the world in which we live would be less if it were not for him.

While enjoying the celebrations of Christmas, we hope you will pause to recognize the significance of the occasion, the world-wide recognition of the Birth that has changed the world and enriched its citizens.

We gratefully acknowledge the cooperation of local schools for their help in submitting Letters-to-Santa for us for publication, as well as the support of our advertisers, who made this issue possible.

We hope you will have as much enjoyment in reading these letters as we did in publishing them.

Holiday Greetings

Blessings to everyone this Holy Christmas Season. We hope the Holidays find you well and happy, peaceful and content. Our prayer is that everyone find peace and contentment not only now but for all the years to come.

Merry Christmas

Christmas means many things: laughing children, smiling Santas, the color of poinsettias and pines. It's a time for warmth and gentleness, kindness and good feeling. May all of the season's finest joys be yours this yuletide. We're hoping just the nicest kinds of things come your way!

A very happy Christmas to all our Friends!

Bank of Pahokee
and its employees

Christmas Greetings
May a wreath of happiness and love encircle you and your family.
Thanks for your loyal friendship.
Springhouse Nursery & Landscaping

GREETINGS OF THE SEASON!
to all of you!
Wiseman's Body Shop

With warm gratitude wish you peace and ask His blessing for you this Yuletide.
Sears

May your Christmas stocking be filled with all your favorite things... including our thanks.
Mim's Trucking

May the blessings of the holy season fill you with peace and joy.
Cabin Cleaners

Hope yours is a jolly holiday! Thanks for your friendship.
Merry Christmas The Haze

A partridge... a pear tree... a sincere wish for your happiness... all sure signs pointing to a Merry Christmas to All!
Lester Towell Distributors

May the lights on your tree reflect our thanks and bright wishes for a better than ever Christmas!

THE GLORY OF CHRISTMAS

When it became known that the Son of God was born to Mary, all bowed down to worship him. The Wise Men set forth on their journey, for to them alone had the Star miraculously appeared. It guided them to where Jesus lay. There they presented their regal gifts and adored Him.

The awesome wonder of Jesus' holy birth and the lesson of His life will forever enlighten the hearts and minds of people everywhere. As all join to celebrate in the exultant spirit of this hallowed season, we extend best wishes and heartfelt gratitude to our many cherished friends.

Dear Santa,

I hope you have been having a fun time making toys for the boys and girls. I have been waiting for Christmas a long time. But I can't believe that it is here already. Some children don't believe in you, but I do. When Christmas is everyone gets worried about what they are going to get. Most people just talk about what they are going to get. I do that too sometimes, but this year is different. I am going to tell my friend about the real meaning of Christmas. She probably knows it, but still I want to tell her.

Thank you for the things you gave me last year too. The two best things I liked were Lida Brice and the tire. Please bring me a doll for my doll collection and a bike. There are many ways I like you but here are two: You are a jolly old man and anyone can trust you. I have never heard of anyone else who is so nice. Please list them and put them in the mailbox. There's one thing I do know and that is that everyone loves you just as much I do.

Love,
Sandy Mock

Dear Santa,

How have you been doing? I have twenty-three things on my Christmas list. But I want a guitar and a bowl with a goldfish in it the most.

I am going to make you a very pretty straw for your milk. I am not going to tell you what it's going to look like, because it is a surprise! I am going to make you a present too.

Too. It will be on the table.

What are you going to give Jesus on his birthday? You know Santa, some people forget the real meaning of Christmas. All they think about is what they're going to receive.

I have a little brother named Billy and a little cousin named Lisa. Billy is seven and Lisa is going to be two in January. When is your birthday Santa?

Love,
Karla Scroggin

Dear Santa Clause,

I have been very good this summer and so have my sisters. On Christmas Eve I will leave you some cookies and milk. I would like you to get my mother and father something nice this Christmas. Can you bring them with you this Christmas? If you come in my bedroom, you will see a present for you and your elves. But please try not wake me up because I can not sleep very well on Christmas. Do not come to early because I will be up and opening all of my presents.

Your friend,
Yvonne Bowles
P.S. Come to my house first.

Dear Santa Clause,

We are going to Illinois for Christmas. I wish you could come with us. You are probably a very sweet man because you give people lots of toys. But you have to be very good. Thank you for what you gave me last year. I wanted to know if your reindeer can talk. My brother watches commercials all of the time and he wants a lot of the toys on T.V. He wants a stretch monster.

Kevin, my other brother, wants an archery set.

My mother wanted a coat and my father wanted clothes. My little baby sister needs a rattle. I want a bicycle that is just right for me. I also want some candy. We will probably leave you something to eat and drink. Remember you are a very sweet man.

Love,
Melissa Luz

Dear Santa,

I hope you know how Christmas started a long time ago. God talked to a woman. God said that she was going to have a baby, his son. And she had it at Bethlehem. There is a lot to tell in the story of Christmas. The baby's name was Jesus.

I like the toys you brought me. You know, that bike you brought me? I love it. My dad and I go riding sometimes. You had better get your elves to working now.

Your pal,
Lee Parson

Dear Santa,

I thank you for what I had last Christmas. And I will thank you for what I will have this time too.

Your cheeks are like red roses and your stomach is like a bowl full of jelly. I just can't wait for Christmas!

And this is what I want for Christmas. I want a bike, Mr. Mouth, Quick Change Machine, Max Machine, and a Stretch Arm Strong. I have been very good.

We are going to the fair in March these weeks and I'll miss the three weeks!

Love,
Bryan Tucker

Dear Santa Clause,

I have been very good this year. I hope you can come to see me. I will have milk and cookies waiting for you. Please try to get me a Barbie Town House, a bike, a Ken formy Barbie, and a stereofor Christmas.

My mother needs a toaster, because hers is broken. My daddy needs some clothes because most of his don't fit him. Lisa needs money to pay for her Rally-Sports car. If you come I hope you bring them with you. My niece is Brandy and I hope you bring her something. One thing you can bring her is a rattle. She isn't one year old yet, so don't bring her anything too big.

Love,
Cheeryl

Dear Santa Clause,

I have been very good! Thank you for the presents I got last year. I like them very much! I will leave you also of goodies. Some will be pockies, oranges, candy and milk. I have a little puppy and I bet he will be glad to see you. He sure is lucky! I hope to get a bike, and doll. My little niece wants a doll, gerbil, and any kind of game. I am working hard in school and having fun writing this letter! Today is the first day of December. It is only two weeks till we get out of school, and I am glad! I wish I could go to Sky Valley for Christmas, because snow! Santa Clause, why don't you ever want anybody to see you? Is it because you are afraid? Please write me back!

Yours truly,
Amy Creech

Dear Santa Clause,

Santa, thank you for all of the things you brought me last year. There is going to be food for you on the TV. Santa, I want a stuffed dog and the little beach buggy that runs on carpet.

And I would also like a racing track, Tonto and his horse with Silver and the Lone Ranger, and a stuffed cat with babies.

Also please bring me some Lego building bricks, girders and panel, a three speed bicycle, and tractor. Santa, I think you are nice. There is going to be a present for you. Santa, next time don't drink all of the kool-aid. Christmas is my favorite season. On Wednesday night your show is on and I'm going to watch it.

Your friend
Tammie Betzer

Dear Santa Clause,

When are you coming to Belle Glade? I will leave cookies and milk for you. I am still wondering how many elves you have. Is Rudolph still ahead of the other reindeer? How are you doing and why won't you let me see you? Do you still have that jolly stomach filled with jelly?

My cousin Loli, is very nice to me and runs fast too. My teacher is very nice and pretty. And her name is Mrs. Boynton. I enjoy having lot of toys and being surrounded by toys too! I think that my teacher needs a big present because she is very sweet. December is one of my favorite months because Jesus was born then. Are your elves working all? How is Mrs. Claus? I hope you see the poor people houses, and make a lot of toys for them too.

Love,
Mecky Garcia

Dear Santa,

Thank you very much for all the things you gave me last year. I enjoyed every one of the toys and I liked what was in my stocking all, too. Since you gave me all those fun things last year, I am going to leave you some homemade cookies for Christmas.

My big brother, David is coming home the sixteenth of December. So just if you can try to leave him something. If you are thinking of what to get me, I'd like Dorothy Hamilton ice skating rink and a Hollie Hobbes pie and cake cooker. And I'd like the Farrah Fawcett make up doll and the Pizza Hut cooker. And I'd also like the Charlie's Angels Tree House. I would also like the Adventure People's Parashute and the adventure. People's T.V. Studio.

Your friend,
Becky Teets

Dear Santa,

I am Sheri Phelps. I live in Belle Glade.

My aunt in Tennessee, has to pay seventy - one dollars for one pound of coal.

I have been very good this year, and here are some of the things I want.

I want a Charlie's Angels barbies, a big piano, small organ, history books and the Sunshine Family Grandparents.

Santa, will you make Mom and Dad take me to Tennessee, and do you evering this song. Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer had a very shiny nose and if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows. All of the other reindeer use to laugh and call him names, and they wouldn't let poor Rudolph join in any reindeer games, or do you ever sing jingle Bells.

I hope you have happy Christmas.

Love,
Sheri Phelps

Dear Santa,

Yesterday my chicken yard was flooded, so I had to get the chicken food and take off my boots and socks. After I fed them I went in side and put my boots up and then I remembered about the rabbit, the dog and the cat. I fed the cat and the dog. I didn't want to do the rabbit, so I asked my dad if he would do it. And he said, "Yes. Then this morning my mother said, "Did you give the puppy and the cat, food

Why the big smile?

Why is this girl smiling? Does that Mona Lisa expression hide something she knows but no one else does? What is the mystery Dimples Duboy found so delightful at Christian Day School Friday? Actually, there was no mystery to the kids filling the gymnasium because they knew that, despite, ah, uh, appearances, Dimples was neither a Miss, Mrs. nor Ms. Dimples is a mister and was the role adopted by Tony Duboy during the annual Mr. Christian Day School beauty pageant and he obviously decided to go all the way. ## Goodlett is new county aide BELLE GLADE-County government will take a step closer to the Glades Monday when David Goodlett, son of Belle Glade Public Safety Director Charles Goodlett, steps into a newly created position in the Glades Office Building.

Palm Beach County Administrator John Sansbury announced this week Goodlett, who graduated from Florida State University last week, will become his assistant Monday, filling a position created during the county's last budget sessions.

"His duties," Sansbury said, "will include overall management of the office building and community relations, especially as liaison with municipalities."

"What it means," Goodlett said Tuesday, "is better representation for the Glades in county government."

Besides the duties announced by Sansbury, Goodlett said he will also serve as an administrative assistant for District Five County Commissioner Bill Bailey and will share office space with him.

The position was created at the suggestion of Bailey, Goodlett said, with the rationale there is need for a liaison officer in the Glades to represent Sansbury and himself, especially in situations when other governmental agencies in the Glades interface with county agencies.

Although he doesn't officially begin work until Monday, Goodlett said he spent all day Tuesday in West Palm Beach at the county commission meeting and is already being familiarized with some of the problems he'll have to face during his first few days at his new post.

He majored in criminology at Florida State, after attending his first two years of college at Palm Beach Junior College, but said he's always been interested in politics and government and only needed nine more hours of subject matter to have earned another bachelor's degree in government.

During the 1977 state legislative session in Tallahassee, he served part-time as an intern to Representative Tom Lewis of North Palm Beach. His duties with Lewis included research, keeping abreast of the representative's House bills and attending various committee meetings.

After Monday, Goodlett said he can be reached at 996-5511.

South Bay talks water, sewer

SOUTH BAY-United Steel Erector Corporation of Fort Lauderdale came in with the apparent low bid of $489,398 for building a million-gallon water storage facility and repumping facilities to improve the city's water system.

United Steel's was one of six bids submitted, ranging in amount up to $330,000 to perform the work which has been planned for some time. The bids were opened and read by John Whitmer of Barker, Osha and Anderson engineers, the firm which designed the facilities.

After the opening, Whitmer took the bids back to West Palm Beach with him. He told the city commissioners he would go over the bids to be sure they were properly done and get back to the commission in January with a recommendation before the city would have to go to Farmers Home Administration for the final financial work.

In another matter dealing with utilities, the commission agreed to ask for still another continuance in the lawsuit filed three years ago against LaGrow Construction Company and Robert Owen, engineer for the city at the time of the construction.

The suit is an attempt on the part of the city to get reimbursement for the city's sewer system, which was installed in 1973. The city claims the construction was done improperly and the city should be at least partially reimbursed.

City Attorney Jim Gann recommended the city try for another continuance, although the judge handling the case has already indicated he won't grant another extension. It is now scheduled as the first case on the docket on Jan. 9 and Gann said he isn't ready with a case.

Gann suggested, and the city agreed, to keep attorney Allan Friedman, who had been working on the case with former City Attorney Allen Everard, to handle part of the casework, as well as attempt to hire an engineer as quickly as possible to inspect the sewer system.

A report was compiled in 1974 by Robert H. Fowler, an engineer suggested by Everard, which purported to show a number of prob-

Belle Glade, Pahokee hospitals cooperating

Positive, if not spectacular, ways the two hospitals in western Palm Beach County can shave costs and provide better service are in the works as the result of a recent series of discussions between hospital officials.

The discussions began in August at the suggestion of the Area Health Planning Council, according to Glades General Hospital Administrator Ben Clarke and Everglades Memorial Hospital Administrator Cecil Greig.

Clarke said the boards of trustees for the two hospitals held joint sessions, beginning in October and named a board member from each hospital to meet with the two administrators as a committee to discuss the possibilities of cooperation and even consolidation.

He said the talks covered possibilities ranging from sharing purchasing procedures and technical machinery to closing one of the hospitals to building an all-new consolidated hospital between Belle Glade and Pahokee.

Clarke and Greig said the Health Planning Council recommended a goal for 1982 of building a new hospital but they and their board members agreed that's unrealistic in the face of financial problems such as outstanding bond issues both hospital districts must still pay off and the estimated $12-16 million price tag for a new hospital.

They also quickly agreed it would be unwise to close down either of the two facilities because while neither hospital now operates at anything like a full capacity, or census, neither hospital would be able to take over the entire operation either.

Clarke said he told the Glades General trustees in July or August that in his opinion the hospital's low census could lead to problems in justifying federal aid programs within the near future because of some relatively new guidelines on those programs.

Greig said the objective stated by the Health Planning Council is that the two hospitals should be merged by 1982 but he isn't sure what that means. "I think there's a lot of confusion," he said, "even with Mr. Carter's program, that it is absolutely law (that the hospitals which can't maintain a 50 percent occupancy should be combined or share services)."

The two administrators agreed there are times of the year when neither hospital can possibly support 50 percent occupancy. They also agreed the most logical and efficient solution would be a consolidated hospital and both went further to say that solution is impractical at this time.

That left other areas of cooperation to explore and even some of those proved on inspection to be impractical.

An example was the possibility suggested to combine the laundry service of both hospitals.

Clarke said that again, neither hospital has the facilities needed to assume the laundry for both and there would be the added expense of transportation.

"Right now," he said, "they (Everglades Memorial) pay six to seven cents a pound for their laundry. We would have to install

Ex cop 'investigates' new job

BELLE GLADE-Going to Tallahassee from Belle Glade by way of Alaska might be considered absurd by some people but that was the quickest way for Carolyn Hooton, and thereby hangs a tale.

The detour came in 1973 when Miss Hooton received her Associates of Arts degree in criminology from Palm Beach Junior College and figured her best bet for financing the remainder of her college career was by the GI Bill of Rights.

The decision made, it was only a matter of months before she became the first Military Policewoman in the U.S. Army's Alaskan Command and three years later was able to resume her studies at Florida State University in Tallahassee.

Winding up a three-month internship last week under the tutelage of Theo York as an assistant State's Attorney investigator, Miss Hooton reflected on some of the things she's learned over 4,450 miles and four years of experience.

"I think a woman can make a good investigator," she said, "for instance, 'and I might get the ERA women down on my back but I don't think women are as good as men on the street.'"

And, lest some of those women jump too quickly, Miss Hooton is no stranger to "street" police work. She would have been if her superiors in Alaska had had their way, she said, but she kept pushing from the dispatcher's job she started with until she wound up at the main gate and then doing downtown patrols in Anchorage.

Such as the time she was on patrol, checked out a disturbance in an Anchorage bar and ran head-on into a "6'3" 250 pound drunk" who told her in no uncertain terms

Christmas is a bit different in the Glades. Hopefully, there is no snow. Nor do sleighbells jingle. And chimneys are hard to find.

Therefore, the teachers of Pahokee Elementary School came up with a different kind of Christmas tale, aimed at the children in the Glades.

Pat Lucey composed it and it's reprinted here in full:

Christmas in the Glades

'T was the night before Christmas and all through the Glades, no noses were frozen, no snow fluted down, no children in flannels were tucked in their beds, they all wore short pajamas instead. To find wreaths of holly was not very hard, for holly wreaths grew in every backyard. The sleeping children were dreaming with glee; hoping to find water skis under the tree. They all knew Santa was well on his way; in a cane truck instead of a sleigh. He whizzed up the highway and zoomed up the side roads in a new John Deere tractor delivering his loads. And soon he arrived and started his work; for he didn't have a minute to linger or shirk. As he jumped from the tractor he gave a deep chuckle. He was dressed in shorts with a Florida "Gators" buckle. There weren't any chimneys but that caused no gloom, for Santa came in the door of the Florida room. He stopped at each house, stayed only a minute, emptying his bag of the toys that were in it. Before he departed he treated himself to a glass of orange juice on the shelf. He turned with a bounce and leaped to the tractor. Remembering he still had to go very far. Turning the key and lighting the dash, up Highway 441 he went like a flash, but he heard him exclaim as he went on his way. MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU...

I find the Christmas season the most delightful of all the year, just as do many others. And like I said last week, I'm looking forward to this Christmas more than any Christmas since I was about five years old.

Burke, my two-year-old, has managed to unwrap every Christmas package placed under the tree, so we have been forced to hide them all. Even so, he managed to find one or two and tear open the boxes.

But it doesn't matter to him. Just so he gets a "cycle," a "gun" and a "tractor," he'll be happy. These things have been supplied and well hidden by a Santa who is looking forward to picture-taking on Burke's first real Christmas morning.

From the Lampton clan, including Biff, Lilly, Burke and dog Clancy, may you have the best Christmas ever.

SR80 brings good, bad news

State Road 80 was the subject of some good news and some bad news last week but not in that order.

The bad news came first when the State Department of Transportation decided to put off bid letting resurfacing of the existing highway from Belle Glade to 20 Mile Bend from this month to next fiscal year.

Besides the inconvenience of delaying the bid letting until at least next July, that would have meant road crews busily repaving the highway in the middle of the harvest season...something we don't even like to think about.

Fortunately, the good news came hard on the heels of the bad news. DOT officials announced they'd changed their minds and would let the bids in March rather than wait until July or later, which means the resurfacing should be just about completed by the time the 1978-79 harvest season rolls around.

And for that, we can thank a county commissioner and a couple of legislators who got more than a little perturbed about still another delay on improvements to what has to be one of the worst roads in the state.

Because that second announcement didn't come about by itself. It came as the result of intense pressure exerted by Commissioner Bill Bailey in letters to every legislator representing the county, the governor and the lieutenant governor.

It came about as the result of pressure applied by Representative Ed Healey and it came about last, but by no means least, the pressure applied directly to District Engineer William Fowler and Secretary of Transportation Tom Webb by Representative Tom Lewis.

The legislature was in session in Tallahassee last week on another matter and Representative Lewis used his time well in a series of personal meetings and phone calls to Webb. That contact paid off Friday afternoon when Lewis was able to announce the new schedule of bid lettings.

This isn't the first time Glades residents have found themselves owing to debt to Lewis and it isn't the first time he's applied himself to stop delays on the improving of SR 80.

As a matter of fact, if the DOT had accepted an earlier offer made by Lewis, the problem of a delay would never have come up in the first place. He offered help in readying the plans for the resurfacing project and officials of the DOT, in their infinite wisdom, ignored that offer...then turned around and blamed the delay on the fact plans for the project weren't complete while plans for another job, somewhere else in the state, were ready to go.

It's a bit late for Thanksgiving, but at least the people in the Glades can appreciate the Christmas present of an earlier paving job on SR 80 made possible by men like Tom Lewis, who seems to make a habit of cutting Gordian knots of bureaucratic red tape for us, and Bill Bailey, who sounded the alarm in the first place.

Happy Holidays, Tom and Bill, and thanks.

Health center

One of the better pieces of news to come up lately in the Glades was the announcement a couple of weeks ago the people who count appear receptive to plans for a new health and social services center behind the Palm Beach County Glades Office Building.

While we aren't usually all that enthused over some new idea to spend the taxpayer's money, this new center represents an investment which should realize a sizeable savings to the people who support these services.

And since we're all the people who support the services, we can all appreciate the savings.

When the existing complex of trailer units first began forming more than four years ago behind the County Health Department building on Northwest Tenth Street, the whole thing was supposed to have been strictly a temporary measure.

But like all too many temporary measures, the complex grew like Topsy into a Frankenstein's monster that eats up an incredible amount of tax dollars every year.

Yearly, for instance, District Director Jules Dorn of the State Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services (HRS) said he spends $74,000 on electricity alone to air condition and heat the trailers.

And again, it seems we have Tom Lewis and Bill Bailey to thank for doing the lions share of the preparatory work on making the plans of reality.

Lewis said at the League of Municipalities barbeque here two weeks ago the center has become his number one priority for the Glades and he has already made sure members of the House of Representatives appropriations have physically inspected the site and understand the need for the $1 million proposal.

Let's hope the details can be worked out in the upcoming sessions.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Well, it's about time someone thinks to name a day after us.

Seems like everybody and his brother was being honored around this country...Mothers, Dad, mothers-in-law, grandmothers, even hot dogs but it wasn't until last week that someone finally came up with it...National Underdog Day.

Luckily, I found about it during the morning so I could alert the other underdogs but there really wasn't time to plan a full day of festivities to localize the celebration in the Glades tradition of really getting into things...at least not the way I would've done it.

I mean, nationally, the situation was supposedly pretty well in hand. Some group was supposed to be picking an Underdog of the Year to take over from Harry Reasoner. Reasoner won the award last year when Barbara Walters was given her million dollar contract with ABC.

Course I could argue that even considering Barbara Walters' contract Harry Reasoner isn't exactly my idea of your archetypal underdog. My conception of an underdog is more like a Sad Sack, The Born Loser, Funky Sinkerbean. He's the guy things happen to; he inherits a rubber plantation in Brazil the week before the perfect synthetic rubber is invented in Akron, who wrecks his car the day after his insurance company goes bankrupt...and a week after he's blown $500 for a new transmission and $99 for a pair of new radial tires.

Not that he's dumbly. He can be bright, personable and reasonably well educated. It ain't his fault if he's inherited that personalized black cloud from Joe Bpftsk.

Ad w/eve else he may be Harry Reasoner don't fit that mold. He may not be the first female at ABC and he may not have a million dollar contract but Reasoner still ain't that much of an underdog.

Far as I'm concerned, that's the private turf of someone like your average, garden variety Cracker Crumb.

About the only way a true Underdog could get the national recognition needed to win the national award would be like the guy from Virginia who made the news a few weeks ago because he'd been struck by lightning seven times already and every time a thunderstorm brewed up, he put his family in one room and hid in another room.

Now, that's a fellow underdog I can associate with...not someone like Harry Reasoner, for God's sake!

Trouble is that by the very nature of the beast, once a person makes national headlines, he ain't rightly an underdog anymore. I'm like saying Billy Carter is your average beer-drinking redneck. Not that he ever was but once his brother made the limelight, and he started puking down $10,000 for showing up to swell beer on the premises, he just wasn't average anymore. I mean, how many average rednecks have their own beer named after them?

Now, the only answer I see to the dilemma is to go ahead and start at the local level several months, or at least weeks, in advance, and name Underdogs at the community level, then the contestants could work their way to the top, Universal Underdog.

Course they wouldn't be underdogs any longer, either, but all the underdogs of the world could bask in their reflected glory. Have their own day as it were.

And speaking of dogs, and Colts, having their day, it didn't take long, did it, Mike and Skipper? Oh, how the mighty have fallen and how Mike was chortling as he asked Bill what that was repeated about just who it is who's gonna wind up in the playoffs.

Hoo, ha! Make up those dirty pictures, will they? Send a body a crow pie, huh? Well, the Gators, day hasn't come yet. I've had to make do with memories of the past nine years but my day'll come again too. In the meantime, I'll do a little basking in reflections of glade myself.

But all seriousness aside, I got so bad after reading some of Don Shula's comments about stooge games, I just had to go tsk, tsk and tsk. Seems to me like I can remember one of those stooge games when Shula's son was playing a few years ago in a playoff game against the Glades Central Raiders.

Sure is terrible to be robbed by the officials, isn't it Don? Hee, hee, hee!

Circles hold annual meeting

PAHOKEE—The annual meeting of the Grace Jernigan and Fay Taylor Circles was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee on Dec. 13 at 6:30 p.m. The special meeting was in observance of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions.

The theme was Declare, using as a basis the scripture from Exodus 9:16 — "And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to show in thee my power; that my name may be declared throughout the world."

Mrs. Tommie Lee DuBose was in charge of the program, which began with group's singing of "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" followed by the Call to Prayer by Mrs. Grace Graham. Five guests representing missionaries from their respective areas gave their backgrounds, their call to God's service in their local areas and finally to foreign fields, their experiences on the foreign field and an example of the nationals who have responded to the message and given their lives in service to God and their fellow countrymen.

The guests were Mrs. Margie Branch who represented Jordan; Mrs. Ruby Guthrie, Hong Kong; Mrs. Dot Folds, Grenada; and Mrs. Addie Thompson, Argentina. The song "Tell the Good News" was sung and prayers were led by Mrs. Dee Maxson and Mrs. Edna Keen.

Prior to the program, a covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Elaine Storey and Mrs. Adeline Wroten made preparations and used gold pine cones and poinsettias as decorations. Other kitchen helpers were Mrs. Annie Lou Cooper and Mrs. Ena Keen.

Garden Club holds open house

PAHOKEE—On Tuesday, Dec. 20 from 7:30 p.m. until 10 p.m., the Pahokee Garden Club held its annual Holiday Open House. This year it was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shirley, 1531 Bacom Point Road.

Approaching the home, the first decoration one saw was a very large wreath spotlighted on the lawn. A wreath on the door and another over the mantel in the living room repeated the Christmas theme.

Inside, the traditional red and green colors were used. Upon entering the home, the guests were greeted by Garden Club President, Mrs. Lyons Williams and Mrs. Claude Shirley. The beautifully decorated Christmas tree, with its gaily wrapped packages was the center of attraction between the living room and the Florida room.

Among the living room decorations was an arrangement featuring a Madonna and live red roses, a huge white candle on a tall green stand with a red bow, and an arrangement using greenery and red birds on the coffee table.

The dining room table was covered with a red satin tablecloth with red net overlay, decorated with four large red and white felt poinsettias dazzling with sequins. The centerpiece was composed of live red poinsettias, a red candle and greenery. Table appointments were silver and crystal.

Spotlighted on the piano in the Florida room was a Nativity scene and open Bible. Centering the round table was a most unusual cloth-pillowed and decorated tree. It was surrounded by tiny Christmas packages and placed on a natural imported burlap tablecloth featuring hand painted red poinsettias. Other beautiful arrangements were used on the coffee table, in the bookshelves and on the television. Even the kitchen was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The view through the glass doors of the patio showed a unique tree fashioned of red poinsettias and greenery and a designed Christmas tree sparkling on the wall. The most surprising feature was an attractively decorated open inverted red umbrella hanging on the orange tree around which the redwood patio is built. Colored spotlights enhanced the scene and a gurgling waterfall was heard.

Those pouring coffee and punch were past presidents of the club—Mesdames M.C. Todd, Lloyd Hundley, Jess Elliott, Robert Simonson, Bruce Bowe and Harry McIntosh.

Mesdames Lloyd Hundley, Jess Elliott and Harry McIntosh presided at the guest book.

The general chairman of the Open House was Mrs. Lloyd Hundley. Her committee who was in charge of decorations was composed of Mesdames Claude Shirley, Jess Elliott, Harry McIntosh, Louis Davis, Robert Hatton and Lyons Williams. Mrs. Bruce Bowe was in charge of refreshments. She was assisted by Mesdames Rupert Mock, Ellis Walston and Jack Spencer.

More than 50 guests signed the guest book. Among these were Mrs. Ruth Meredith of Lake Worth, Mrs. Herbert Speer of Starke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Apelgren of North Palm Beach and Mrs. Barbara Ann Wright of Gainesville.

THIS CHRISTMAS

Give Practical

For all its ease of operation, flexibility and speed of cooking, the

Radurange

Amana Touchmatic

is a real energy saver.

It uses 50% to 75% less energy than a conventional oven.

The reasons it saves so much electricity are simple: The Amana Touchmatic Radarange Microwave Oven does not require pre-heating like an ordinary oven. It cooks with time, not heat. And because it cooks almost everything in about one-fourth the usual time—it is only "on" about one-fourth the time. Obviously, it only uses about one-fourth the electricity.

Convenience is still the strongest reason for owning an Amana Touchmatic Radarange Microwave Oven. Defrost in Minutes. Warm up individual servings, right on the serving dish. And since only the food gets hot, the oven stays cool...spills don't bake on. Just wipe clean with a damp cloth.

Amana's Touchmatic Radarange Microwave Oven. The greatest cooking discovery since fire. No doubt about it.

If it doesn't say Amana, it's not a Radarange MICROWAVE OVEN

Belle Glade Junior Women fete ARC youngsters

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Junior Women's Club gave its annual Christmas party for the children who attend the Association for Retarded Citizens pre-school program.

Each child received a gift from the club as well as homemade cookies and punch as refreshments.

Santa Claus was played by Mrs. Linda Sullivan, the aunt of one of the children who attends the pre-school. The children were also given stockings by the Ben Franklin Store. The Christmas tree was decorated by members of the Belle Glade Elks Lodge.

The pre-school serves 15 developmentally delayed children between the ages of six months and five years. Emphasis is placed on teaching a child on his own individual level of learning.

Each child receives daily training in language skills, motor skills, social skills, and self-help skills. Any child residing in the western portion of Palm Beach County who is delayed in one or more areas is eligible for this program.

Anyone knowing of a child who needs special services should contact Ms. Betty Evans, the supervising teacher, at 996-9583.

Persons participating in giving the party for the Junior Women's Club were Mrs. Sandra Chambliss, Mrs. Claudia Sizemore, Mrs. Gina Farley, and Mrs. Diane Corbin.

Beta Gammas hold party

BELLE GLADE—Members of Xi Beta Gamma, their husbands and guests attended a Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carpenter, Sat. evening, Dec. 17.

After dinner those attending enjoyed opening gifts Santa had left for them under the Christmas tree. Christmas carols were sung by the entire group.

The evening was enjoyed by the following members and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Ayres, Mr.

and Mrs. Warren Battje, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drawdy, Mrs. Dorothy Graber, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lindrose, Dr. and Mrs. Mendal Luce and Mr. and Mrs. E.F. McAllister.

Out of town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Devas, of Louisiana, Ms. Pat Markham, of Lake Placid, Bill Peoples, of Sebring, Eddie Ribacchi, of Singer Island and Mr. and Mrs. John Turnbull, of West Palm Beach.

Supper meeting is held

BELLE GLADE—The members of Xi Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their monthly meeting at the home of Gene Cross, Dec. 13.

Sisters are now snowbirds

BELLE GLADE—Two sisters from Belle Glade became "snowbirds" in reverse when they took a Christmas vacation to Nova Scotia and were snowed in en route.

Linda and Paula Anderson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Anderson, left Dec. 14 to spend the holidays in Canada's eastern province and were hoping for lots of snow. Their wish didn't take long to materialize as their flight from Montreal to Sydney was cancelled when the airport was snowed in.

Linda called home from Montreal to let her parents know she and Paula were grounded and would be guests of the airline until they could resume their flight. The girls will return to Belle Glade on Dec. 30 and Mrs. Anderson predicted they will be happy to get warm again. Temperatures in Sydney this week reached 10 below zero.

Circle holds Christmas party

PAHOKEE—The Simonsen-Lair Circle held their December Annual Christmas party in the beautifully decorated home of Mrs. Tina Elliott. There were ten members and Mrs. Marjorie Hutton, outgoing president of the United Methodist Women, in attendance.

Mrs. Esther Hundley read the Christmas Story from the book of Luke and also a short article on responding to the Christ Child. Three games were played with prizes won by Mrs. Sue Rozell and Mrs. Hutton.

Mrs. Elliott served lovely Christmas refreshments and gifts were distributed from beneath a beautifully decorated tree.

Mrs. Hundley will be hostess in January and Mrs. Lillian Hutton will give the program.

Completing the program, the group formed a prayer circle to remember the sick and the bereaved.

LIBRARY TO BE CLOSED OVER HOLIDAYS

BELLE GLADE—The Municipal Library will be observing a holiday weekend, closing Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, according to City Manager Robert R. Sanders.

The City Commission agreed to the shorter hours over the Christmas weekend after a request from Librarian Janean Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphries

Humphries-Heldt vows are said in Mississippi

Betty M. McIlwain of Petal, Miss., announced this week the marriage of her daughter Ellen Sue Heldt to Michael Steven Humphries, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Humphries of Purvis, Miss.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Ann Taylor and the late J.L. Miller of Belle Glade. The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. P.C. Humphries of Hattiesburg, Miss. and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham of Collins, Miss.

Ellen is a graduate of Brooklyn High School, Pearl River Junior College and received a BS degree in Physical Education and Health from the University of Southern Mississippi. She is presently employed as a Physical Education teacher at Purvis High School.

Mike graduated from Purvis High School and received a BS degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in Athletic Administration and Coaching. He is now employed with Evans Carpet of Purvis.

The wedding vows were exchanged at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 17, in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church of Purvis, Miss. After a honeymoon at Gatlinburg, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Humphries will reside in Purvis, Miss.

Kiwanis Club hears Chief Bill Mathis

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Kiwanis Club of the Glades, a newly formed service club in the area, held their third weekly meeting Dec. 14, with their first guest speaker, Police Chief D. Bill Mathis.

"Getting involved in the community is the answer," Mathis said. "I feel that we need to identify more with the young people and get them involved in the community."

Mathis, who joined the police force in 1955 as an identifications officer, was promoted to Deputy Chief in 1964 and remained in that position until he was promoted to his current position in September. He is also a member of the local Lions Club.

Mathis spoke to the members about the jury district in the Glades, he said that it would be a tremendous plus factor for the businessmen in the area. Although there will be an extra work load, jurors will no longer have to travel to attend juries in West Palm Beach.

Mathis told the group that it surprised people to find Belle Glade is not as far behind times as they seem to think. "We have a modern police force which employs 64 personnel, mostly civilian," Mathis said.

Federal revenue sharing funds and grants has enabled the force to purchase video taping equipment and new recording equipment, which will record all incoming calls to the department.

Included in the new radio equipment is a communications system Portable Radio Equipped Personnel (PREP). The new system will enable each mobile unit to have direct communications with headquarters, and also serve as a safety factor for the force.

The department has purchased eight bullet-proof vests, though quite expensive, Mathis said. "There is no expense when you are talking about a man's life."

Tennis courts to be moved

BELLE GLADE—Two tennis courts in McDonald Park which were to have been torn up and rebuilt will now be relocated to Lyons Park as the result of a decision made during a workshop session Monday.

The decision, which is expected to be ratified during the commission's regular meeting next Monday evening, was made by four of the commissioners in the absence of Commissioner William Gear who had already voiced objections to the move at the request of City Manager Robert R. Sanders.

Sanders noted there was a big improvement in the visibility of the civic complex going up in McDonald Park with the removal of the tennis courts, and the fence surrounding them, which were between the city hall annex and the fire station.

He said he had already discussed the matter with Mayor Tom Altman and Commissioner Gear. Altman said he had also discussed the relocation with Gear and that Gear objected to placing the two at Lyons Park, that he wanted them placed somewhere in the Southwest section of town.

"He didn't object to moving the courts out of McDonald Park," he said. "What he objected to was moving them to Lyons Park." Altman then polled the other commissioners and all agreed the move should be made.

Sanders said he didn't need an official action by the commission as long as he could get consensus opinion which would be ratified at the next regular meeting.

Commissioners Kenneth Harris and Ralph Kirk agreed the courts shouldn't be maintained in McDonald Park, that the area should be devoted to the civic complex instead.

lems caused by faulty construction and engineering.

Everard said, during a meeting between the city commission and Owen and LaGrow, with their attorneys, in February, that he had been told by Fowler there was a possibility of $100,000 in damages the city could collect.

Fowler, however, has not been in the area for some time and Everard said during the February meeting he was in Indonesia, and Gann said he wasn't sure the city would want to use him anyway.

Hoffman said that when Fowler made his report, the city was implicated to some extent because of faulty connections which were made without authorization but the majority of the blame lay on the engineering and construction.

On the other hand, when Fowler made a deposition in the presence of Owen, Hoffman said Fowler "caved in" and made a weak impression.

Hoffman said there is some doubt the city can even find, during the holidays, an engineer who would be willing to do the work before Jan. 9 but he and Gann recommended it might be worth while attempting to get one while Gann files for another continuance.

Gann cautioned the city that even if they do go ahead and spend the estimated $200,000 cost of an engineering study, they have no idea what that study will indicate.

He also noted that no matter what course the city takes, even if they should attempt to make a settlement, there are still considerable expenses which have already been incurred which will have to be paid. He said there is a possibility, however, that if the city should go to court and win, the city may be awarded enough in damages to pay those fees.

There was no indication about the size of the legal fees as of Tuesday night but at the time of the February meeting, a partial statement of $50,000 had already been submitted.

In other matters, the commission:

- Decided to "think about" a decision to require larger deposits for city water customers to avoid customers who neglect to pay their bills and skip town.
- Refused permission to a group of Belle Glade merchants who wanted to use the land normally used for fairs to put on a concert next month for Jamaican cane cutters in the area, importing the talent from Jamaica.

Commissioners Ray Sullivan and Vernita Cox said they wouldn't want a concert, which would have drawn an estimated 5 to 6,000 Jamaicans from five surrounding labor camps, put on in South Bay unless it has been successfully tried elsewhere first.

Awarded a bid to Barker Osha and Anderson engineering firm to act as a recreation planner for the city under the Community Development Program.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Belle Glade City Commission will consider adoption of a proposed Ordinance of the City of Belle Glade, Florida, relating to the Prevention and Protection of Fire, on the 27th day of December, 1977.

Said Ordinance will be considered for second and final reading on the 27th day of December, 1977.

All interested persons may appear at said meeting and be heard on the subject of said proposed Ordinance, a copy of which is in the office of the City Clerk at the Belle Glade City Hall Annex, 110 S.W. Avenue E, Belle Glade, Florida.

Hospitals Cont. from P1

$20,000 worth of new equipment, hire a couple of new people and on a break-even basis, we still couldn't possibly do it for less than 20 cents a pound...and that's on a break-even basis."

Clarke went on to explain that as long as the hospitals are two separate entities, one would actually lose money by performing a service for the other at cost.

He said he and Greig are still exploring ways of cooperating with each other on an administrative level and the two administrators both emphasized they have been cooperating in some ways for years. One area now being explored is consolidated purchasing for the two facilities.

"And while we couldn't build a consolidated hospital right now," Clarke said, "there's nothing wrong with starting to look at it."

no "little girl" was going to run him in.

"He shoved me and I slid back several feet," she recalled. "If I'd been a man, I could have...whoop (with a chopping motion in the air). I'd had unarmed training of course, but I used my stick...just ducked under him and whacked him across the shins. He folded up and I didn't have any more trouble with him."

"I had trouble a couple of other times," she said, "but I never did have to use my unarmed combat training. I always used my stick."

On the whole, she said, she had little trouble from men she was attempting to apprehend however; not nearly as much as in getting accepted by her fellow MPs.

"I was the only girl on the squad," she said, "and I knew more about the love life of every man there than they knew themselves. I'd get stuck on midnight duty with them and when the nights were slow, they'd just spill their guts to me. "They used to call me the pot patrol," she reminisced. "When you were on the midnight shifts on the main gate, you got to leave when you made a pot bust. I made more busts on the gate than anybody."

It could have been her natural curiosity sharpened by the pot busts or it could have been the experience of having men "spill their guts" to her but somewhere during her tour of duty in Alaska, she said she changed her mind about wanting to be a street cop and decided she'd rather be an investigator.

"Eventually, that's what I want to be," she said. "I want to be an investigator for a state's attorney or a deputy for a sheriff's office in South Florida somewhere."

Miss Hooton said she has built a real respect for the methods used in investigating cases by York. She said the primary difference between York's technique and that of a police detective, although it is often mandated by circumstances, is that York builds a careful case before making an arrest.

She said she has worked in every kind of case from rape to embezzlement during her internship under York and there are some cases she expects to be subpoenaed for once they reach trial and she returns to Tallahassee to complete her studies.

"I love it," she said. "It's amazing what people who don't even want to talk to you at first will end up telling you. They'll even think of something after you've left and call you on the telephone and you'll tell 'em, 'Oh, really?' and jot that down too."

She said York has given her a free rein during her internship on a number of cases, getting into every phase of the investigation. "I've learned so much from him about investigating and about people," she said.

Miss Hooton said she'll return to FSU on Jan. 5 to resume her studies and she expects to get her bachelor's degree in June, then go on to get her master's degree.

She said one person in Tallahassee who has influenced her way of thinking about criminology in general and police work in particular have been Dr. George Kirkham, a criminology professor who works part time with the Tallahassee Police Department.

She recalled that both she and David Goodlett, son of Belle Glade Safety Director Charles Goodlett, were in Kirkham's class several months ago when an NBC camera crew was filming a segment for 60 Minutes on Kirkham's theories being put into practice as a police officer.

"He's great," she said, "and I hope to have him as my major professor when I go for my master's." She said she hopes to get Matt DeZee, her advisor and Kirkham's protegee, as another professor. She said the two educators have a lot of opposition from other instructors in the criminology department but she believes they have some good ideas.

"They're law enforcement oriented," she said, "and a lot of the other instructors think they're too much so. But I have a lot of respect for Dr. Kirkham."

SR 80 resurfacing delay is shortened

BELLE GLADE-The resurfacing of SR 80 delay announced last week was shortened by three months by pressure applied to the State Department of Transportation by elected officials from Palm Beach County.

State Representative Tom Lewis told the Belle Glade Herald Friday afternoon the job, which was originally scheduled for bid letting this month and had been postponed until next fiscal year, had been rescheduled for March.

While that represents a three-month delay over the original schedule, it's at least three months earlier than the schedule announced last week by the DOT. Lewis said he was told the delay came about when DOT officials said plans for the job to repave SR 80 between 20-Mile Bend and Belle Glade weren't complete while plans for a similar job in another part of the state were ready to go.

"The ironic thing," Lewis said, "is that when they first scheduled the job several months ago, I offered them help in the planning stage but they never got back to me so I assumed they had it under control."

He said the problem was finally worked out Friday morning after a series of conferences with State Secretary of Transportation Tom Webb. Those talks began last Tuesday and continued through Friday before a solution was announced.

"This will actually be better for the agricultural interests than the December letting would have been," Lewis said. "If they let the bids in March, construction should get underway in late April or May. With a four-month time limit on the job, that means they should be finished before the harvest season begins."

One of the biggest objections Lewis had made to the revised schedule which would have seen the bids let in July or August, was that construction crews would have begun pouring onto the busy highway at the peak of the harvest season when cane and vegetable trucks would have made the situation doubly dangerous.

"I told (Webb)," Lewis said last week, "if they held off until July they might as well forget about it because the road probably wouldn't be there."

Lewis was alerted to the problem when Palm Beach County Commissioner Bill Bailey heard about it and fired off angry letters to the entire legislative delegation, Gov. Reubin Askew and Lt. Gov. Jim Williams.

"I feel great," Bailey said Friday afternoon, shortly after he'd heard the news. "I feel like a kid at Christmas and this makes a good Christmas present."

"I originally didn't think the construction would get underway until February or March," he said, "and when I heard about the July letting, that's when I got hot under the collar and sent off the letters. Evidently they did some good. July would be just too damn late."

Bailey had high praise for Lewis' role in shortening the delay on the job and pointed out that Palm Beach County Legislative Delegation Chairman Ed Mealey had also applied the needed pressure.

THE HAPPY WINNER of the Belle Glade Rotary Club turkey shoot giveaway this year was Bill Rhodes, center. Rhodes won a .22 magnum Winchester lever-action rifle Saturday night in the annual event. Presenting the gun is Terry Kirchman and Fritz Stein, co-chairman of the shoot. Even though rain fell both Friday and Saturday nights during the shooting, it failed to dampen the spirits of those attending and the club said it may have been the most successful shoot ever.

HUD will do city audit

BELLE GLADE-An audit scheduled to be made of the last two years of operation of the Community Development Program here will be arranged by the city and paid for by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The line by line audit is being scheduled for the city department in the wake of the arrest of former CD Director George Gartner on a grand larceny charge with intent to commit fraud.

The audit was asked for by Commissioner Kenneth Harris to remove any doubts about further irregularities in the department, or reveal them if they exist.

At the time the commission decided to have the audit made, City Manager Robert R. Sanders said there was a possibility there was a county or state agency which would do the job.

Cool weather, rain fail to dampen fishing

By Nan Corbin

BELLE GLADE—The rain and cooler weather during the latter part of last week didn't seem to upset either the fish or the fishermen in the Belle Glade area. Almost everyone who went out for bass over the weekend came in with something and limit catches were a common occurrence.

David Moore and George Shoulty of Pompano Beach used

Belle Glade standouts are honored

Two former Belle Glade High School football standouts, Jerry Clark and Barry Carrigan, were starters at Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas, in 1977.

Clark is a senior running back, who holds most of the rushing records at Bethel. Clark gained 2,705 yards on 456 carries in his four year career at Bethel.

Clark finished his career at Bethel with the following records: Most TDS career - 33; most rushing yardage career - 2705; most rushing attempts career - 3070; most points scored career - 3070; most touchdowns scored season, 1976-77: 14; most rushing yards game, 1976-77: 1214; most rushing attempts game - 35; most rushing attempts season, 1976-77: 212; and best kick return average, 1975-76: 26.9.

He received honorable mention All-Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference recognition in 1975 and 1977. He was named to the first team in 1976. Clark also received honorable mention All-American Recognition in 1976.

Carrigan was a starting offensive tackle for Bethel which finished the 1977 season in second place in the KCAC with a 7-2 record. Carrigan is a freshman.

Miss Lundy is listed in Who's Who

Darlene Lundy of Belle Glade was among 32 students at Bethune Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Florida, to be named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

A Medical Technology Major, Miss Lundy is the daughter of Mrs. Herta M. Evans of 649, SW Fourth Street, Belle Glade.

Miss Lundy joins an elite group of students selected from more than 1,000 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Students were selected for this honor based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potentials.

The Glades Central High graduate will join other students to be honored in an annual directory. "We're extremely proud of the students who have been selected for this honor, each one deserves it," said Dr. Oswald P. Bronson, Bethune-Cookman College's president.

SPOONER BEGINS TECH SCHOOL

SAN ANTONIO—Airman Steven A. Spooner, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Spooner of 1025 N.E. 27th St. in Belle Glade has been selected for technical training at Shepherd AFB, Texas in the Air Force air crew operations field.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, and studied the Air Force mission, organization and customer and received special instruction in human relations. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Spooner is a 1974 graduate of Palm Beach County Adult Education High School.

Mean Green worms on the same day to take 17 bass.

Live bait fisherman Delmar Kirkendall of Kokomo, Ind., reported a 9 1/2 pounder on Friday. Hershel Rasmussen of Lake Worth used live shiners on Saturday to take a 7 pound, 15 oz. bass. Findley Pate and Eddie Robinson of Belle Glade used plastic worms and Devil's Horse plugs to take their limits of 10 bass each on Saturday.

Belle Glade fisherman Cecil Meeks fished alone this weekend as his usual partner, Bruce Williams, was out of town. Cecil took his limit of 10 on Saturday morning and 10 more on Sunday morning.

H.K. McIntosh of Pahokee reported his limit on plastic worms on Friday and again on Sunday. Local teenagers Hap Battle and Benton Tyson fished in 20 bass on Saturday with Hap getting an 8 pounder while Benton's largest went 5 1/2 pounds.

James Wadlington used a Devil's Horse on Saturday to take his limit with one at 9 1/2 pounds and one at 7 1/2 pounds. Jamestown, Ohio fisherman William York used live bait on Saturday to take an 8-pound, 12 oz. beauty.

James Spires and Gene Redd of Belle Glade left Slim's dock at 6:30 on Sunday morning and were back before 8:30 with their limit of 20 bass, all taken on plastic worms.

Tony Anascavage and daughter, Terry, of Miami, used blue plum firetail worms on Sunday to take 18 nice bass with Terry landing one that went 5 pounds, 15 oz.

Donnie Herring of Belle Glade came in with an 8-pounder taken on plastic worms on Saturday.

W.W. Ward of Miami reported him limits on Friday, Saturday and Sunday with his largest for the three days going 6 pounds. Our largest fish for the week was caught by Anna Lee Barr of Philadelphia, Tenn., who took one at 10 1/4 pounds and a smaller one at 6 pounds on Saturday.

Speck fishing also showed some improvement over the weekend with Van Short reporting his limit each day for three days.

We wish for each of you a very Merry Christmas and good fishing in the New Year.

Colts top East Lake in football

PAHOKEE—The Colts proved themselves to be the toughest team of the four competing in the East Lake Middle School intramural football league, as the season came to an end last week. The students participated in six weeks of football action.

Teacher Wilbur Mincey, coordinator, said the students range in age from 10 to 13, with one girl participating on each team. Each team played in six games, playing their opponents twice.

Mincey noted that an all-star game was to be held Friday but it was cancelled due to rain; thus their last game was held Thursday. Leading scorers from the four teams were Bobby Chambers with 50 points, Greg Johnson with 32 and Norman Newkirk with 30. Leading the league in wins was the Colts, followed by the Dolphins, then the Cardinals and finally the Cowboys.

Former students excell

Three former Pahokee High School standouts, Eugene Babb, Jerrel Howard, and Phillip Everett, have finished outstanding seasons at Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas. All three have received honors for their efforts in 1977, announced Dennis Flickner, sports information director of Bethel College.

Eugene Babb, a junior defensive back, was named to the all-Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference first team, for the second consecutive year. Babb was further honored by being named to the All-District 10 Team. District Ten includes all of the KAIA schools in the state of Kansas. Babb was also named to the All-American second team for schools competing in Division II of the NAIA. Babb was an important member of the Bethel secondary which allowed only 623 yards this season. Bethel finished the season ranked fifth in the nation in the NAIA in pass defense.

Phillip Everett, a senior safety, was also a member of the Bethel secondary. Everett was injured in the fifth game of the season, and played sparingly the remainder of the season. Everett impressed enough people in the games he did play to be named Honorable Mention All-Conference. Everett was also voted to be one of the Co-Captains by his teammates.

Jerrel Howard, a senior offensive tackle, was the only unanimous choice of the All-Conference team. Howard is a four-year starter at Bethel. Howard was further honored by being named to the All-District Ten Team. Howard also received Honorable Mention on the All-American Team. Howard was voted by his teammates as the most outstanding blocker on the 1977 squad.

Bethel finished the season with a 7-2 record and second place in the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Raiders participate in Times tournament

LAKE WORTH—This week sixteen high school basketball teams participated in the First Annual Palm Beach Times Holiday Invitational Basketball Tournament that was held at the Palm Beach Junior College gymnasium, beginning Monday and ending today.

Sixteen teams played Monday and all but eight were eliminated by their first round opponents. Among those eliminated were the Glades Central Raiders, who lost to the Pompano-Ely Tigers.

The Tigers, who are 7 and 1 in their Class AAA District, took hold of the victory needed to play in the quarter finals with a score of 71-58 over Glades Central.

Glades Central was behind Ely at the end of the first quarter by seven points. But the Tigers weren't willing to let it stop at that and kept adding points to the scoreboard. Thus, they had a fourteen point lead over Glades Central at the end of the first half.

Head Coach Ray Seider stated at half-time, "We're really playing terrible. Of course, much of this is due to the fact that some of our first string players didn't show up for the game. The rest, I would say, is that we're just not moving the ball around enough."

After half-time, both teams came out ready to win. But Glades Central's defense couldn't stop Tiger Lamar Mills from adding 24 points to the Tigers' score.

Although Glades Central players Mike Staples and Jessie Haynes tried to make up for the lost points - needed to win,

Christian Day loses to 56-47

In Junior Varsity action against Palm Vista, the Palm Vista team came out on top beating the Crusaders by a score of 56-47. The leading scorer for the Christian Day team was Jesus Armas with 14. Freddie Alvarez also had a double figure score of 10.

In the girls' game, Christian Day School came out on top with a big score of 56 to 2. Rhonda Hart led the scoring with 14 points and Joni Davis was the second high score with 10.

In Homcoming game action against Benjamin, the Junior Varsity team lost and the Varsity team's game was cancelled after the first half because of a slick floor.

On Saturday, Dec. 17, the girls lost to Lake Worth Christian by a score of 36 to 28. The leading Crusader scorer in that game was Doris Acree with 7 point.

In their game against Lake Worth Christian, the boys lost by a score of 57 to 35. In that game there was a tie for leading scorer. Both Bill Taylor and Alan Bowen had 8. Alan Bowen was the leading rebounder with 16.

Santa visits Xi Zeta Mu

BELLE GLADE—Members of Xi Zeta Mu met at the home of Mrs. Bert Ward Saturday for their annual Christmas party and secret sister gift exchange.

The Ward's home was decorated and brunch was served after the brief business meeting. Mrs. Ray Stedham presented a Christmas devotional as the program.

The highlight of the party was the surprise arrival of Santa Claus in his trusty Volkswagon! He helped Mrs. Ward hand out the gifts and then went on his merry way to destinations unknown.

The chapter presented Mrs. Mary Ross with a cut glass pitcher as a wedding gift.

THE PUPILS OF Art Bowen's third grade class from Gove Elementary School visited Glades General Hospital Dec. 14 to present a number of Christmas decorations made by the members of the class. The students met with Richard C. Lalone, director of nursing at the hospital and refreshments were served by Mrs. Barbara Freel, hospital dietitian. Teacher's aide Annette Wilson helped escort the students.

Guilford gives talk to Pahokee Woman's Club

PAHOKEE—Howard S. Guilford, Superintendent of the Florida School for Youth at Okeechobee, was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Woman's Club on Dec. 14.

Introduced by the president, Mrs. Ada Bush, Guilford gave a most instructive talk, illustrated with colored slides, showing classrooms, activities and campus scenes.

He stated there are now 471 lonely, troubled teenagers at the school. Forty-one of them are girls, sent from all parts of the state.

Seventy percent of these young people are from broken homes; 50 percent came from alcoholic homes, and 70 percent have never attended Sunday School, he said. Most of those assigned to the school have been involved in vandalism, breaking and entering or auto thefts. He noted that runaways are a problem, but are usually returned within an hour of escape.

In closing, Guilford expressed his appreciation to the members for the Christmas presents that were brought for him to carry back to the school.

He added that 334 of those in residence there received no gifts last Christmas from their families — not even a card.

Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson was in charge of the program.

The beautifully decorated Christmas tree and tables were the creation of Mrs. Joe Turbeville. The bright poinsettia plants and centerpiece for the speaker's table were loaned by the Peddler's Cart of Canal Point.

Others assisting Mrs. Uldene Todd, chairman of the hostess committee, were Mrs. Virginia Stokes and Mrs. Dorothy Harvey.

Visitors attending were Mrs. Dorothy Stanley, Ms. Barbara Sommers of Boca Raton, Mrs. Elaine Storey, Ms. Louise H. Elliott and Mrs. Dorothy A. Powers of Dyse, Aberdeen, Scotland.

The next meeting will be a business session on Jan. 11.

Christian Comments

By Bill Anderson
Pastor First Baptist Church of South Bay

If your house is anything like my house at this time of the year, it smells like cookies baking, a drying Christmas Tree, the little whispers from room to room, the rustling of the Christmas wrapping, and with the cry of "I want" every time a new toy comes on television. Children begin to hear little threats from their parents, "If you don't eat your spinach and drink your milk Santa Claus won't leave you any toys."

It seems to me this time of the year brings about more loving and harder hugging than any other time of the year. Even the dog is easier to handle. Yet, I don't complain for I find I look at Christmas with great anticipation myself. I must admit if under the Christmas tree I didn't have a tie that was too loud, a pair of socks that didn't match anything in my wardrobe, and a shirt that was too short in the sleeves and too big in the collar I would be disappointed.

It makes me wonder what Jesus would think if He came to my house on Christmas morning and saw a brightly tinsel Christmas tree, my little girl with at least three different dolls and my son with an arsenal that would put the United Nations to shame.

Jesus just might think that we have lost the true meaning of Christmas. How disappointed Jesus would be in reading the national statistics of death through carelessness and drunk driving related to His day of birth.

When Jesus sees our homes displayed with elaborate gifts He must remember of a small stable where he was born. Would he not see where our brightly decorated Christmas tree stood the shadow of a cross? I wonder if He would not look upon our celebration of Christmas with disappointment and unbelief. As each person tries to impress each other with gifts that they had bought for one-another would Jesus not weep as He wept over Jerusalem. No-one can out give the gift of God, that which Jesus brought into our world, the gift of eternal life. Would He not hear the angels as they proclaim to the shepherds "Peace on earth good will to men," and wonder at the lack of peace and goodwill.

As I see a tear forming in Jesus eye I wonder would He say either "Merry Christmas" or "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

Birthday party for Jesus is set at local church

PAHOKEE-At 5:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve at the Manger Scene in front of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Nativity, 1020 East Main Street, a birthday party will be celebrated for Jesus.

All Christians of the community are invited to witness to the real meaning of Christmas by singing carols, hearing the story of Christmas, singing "Happy Birthday" and eating some birthday cake. Those who wish to bring a birthday gift for Jesus should bring canned foods that will be given to needy people of the Glades.

The traditional Christ Mass with carols and sermon will be celebrated at 11:30 p.m. in the church, followed by a short Christmas Party in the Parish House. All baptized Christians are invited to make their Christmas communion with the congregation. Special Christmas offerings should be marked for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Hunger, the Katherine Price Foundation, Inc. or the agency of choice.

Many who find the holiday season depressing, tiresome and joyless will be enriched and strengthened by these opportunities to thank God for His GIFT to the world at Bethlehem.

Christians young and old may again light the darkness by their witness to the joy of the Christ Child born anew in their hearts. Good News, Glad Tidings, Peace, and Good Will to All Men!

Obituary

MARCELINO MORALES

Services were held Thursday and Friday for Mr. Marcelino Morales, 74, who passed away at his residence at 1517 NW Avenue G in Belle Glade last week.

Mr. Morales was a native of Cuba who moved to Belle Glade from Spain two years ago. He was a retired farmer.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maria Morales, a son Alejo Morales of Belle Glade; two daughters, Mrs. Lilia Fraga and Mrs. Paula Nodal, both of Belle Glade, eight grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Rosary services were held Thursday morning at Mixon Funeral Chapel and Friday morning, the funeral mass was held at St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church, Father Paul Saghy officiating.

Burial followed in the family plot in Foreverglades Mausoleum Gardens of Belle Glade. Mixon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

In the Midst of All This...

LET'S NOT FORGET THIS...

"And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:21.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

"For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved." John 3:16, 17.

We invite you to celebrate the birth of our Saviour by attending church this week, and by spreading good will everywhere you go.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life, will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
